

Notice of Discipline Hearing

Yin-Jen Hsu, R.ac.

Location: Richmond, BC

Nature of Action: On January 9, 2026, the Registrar issued a citation to Yin-Jen Hsu under section 37 of the Health Professions Act.

The citation notifies Mr. Hsu that the CCHPBC Discipline Committee will conduct a hearing to inquire into his conduct as follows:

1. From about 2017 to 2022 (the “Material Time”), he failed to take reasonable steps to ensure his employees at the Yoho Body Care clinic in Richmond, BC (the “Yoho Clinic”) were not engaging in sex work with patients
2. He failed to comply with a standard respecting the practice of acupuncture imposed by the CTCMA under the HPA, namely the “Jurisprudence Course Handbook: Important Legal Principles Practitioners Need to Know” at part 2.E in respect of his billing practices.
3. At the Yoho Clinic, he failed to comply with section 2.2 of the Practice Standard on Clinical Record-Keeping.
4. At the Yoho Clinic, prior to October 2, 2022, he failed to comply with section 1 of the Practice Standard on Clinical Record-Keeping by not keeping a daily appointment log for his acupuncture practice containing the date, the name or initials of each patient, and the time or duration of each appointment.
5. On December 13, 2022, at the Yoho Clinic, he failed to comply with section 6(a)(i) of the Code of Ethics (Schedule A to the CTCMA Bylaws) by not establishing and promoting a health care environment that is conducive to safe practice and to the health and well being of clients and others in the setting.
6. His methods of disposing of used acupuncture needles also constituted a violation of a standard respecting the practice of acupuncture imposed by the CTCMA under the HPA, namely the “Safety Program Handbook for Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists.”
7. His conduct as described in paragraphs 1 to 6 above amounts to professional misconduct, or in the alternative, unprofessional conduct.
