Spring 2027 Licence Examination

The next Licence Examination will be held in Spring 2027.

CCHPBC will start accepting applications for the Spring 2027 Licence Examination on Monday, November 16, 2026.The deadline for the application, including related documents and payment, is 12 pm (noon) PDT on Friday, December 18, 2026.

Candidates are required to complete three components of the Licence Examination:

- Online exam: Clinical Knowledge and Theory
- Performance-Based Assessment (practical exam)
- Self-proctored Online exam: Law, Ethics and Professionalism

Theory Exam: Clinical Knowledge and Theory

Date: February 18 OR 19, 2027

Time: Three hours

Locations:

- Metro Vancouver
- Okanagan Valley
- Vancouver Island

The exam is held in a proctored computer lab. Venue details will be provided by email to exam candidates prior to the exam date.

Performance-Based Assessment

Candidates can choose to attend the Performance-Based Assessment (PBA) on any one of the dates in the following weeks:

Week 1: March 1 – 5, 2027

Week 2: March 8 – 12, 2027

The Performance-Based Assessment (PBA) will be held in Burnaby (Metro Vancouver). Venue information will be provided by email to exam candidates prior to their exam date.

Law, Ethics and Professionalism

The LEP course will consist of seven (7) modules. At the end of each module, applicants must successfully pass an end-of-module quiz to progress to the next module. All materials and resources required to succeed are provided within each module. Successful completion of all seven (7) modules, with a score of 100% in each end-of-module quiz, is a pre-requisite to take the LEP exam. Candidates will be enrolled in the course after the application period ends.

The Law, Ethics and Professionalism Examination is a self-proctored examination that may be completed remotely from the candidate's home or another suitable location.

Candidates may complete the examination at any time between February 22 and 23, 2026. Each candidate will be permitted one (1) examination attempt only.

Time: 90 minutes

Accommodation (related to disabilities)

CCHPBC will provide reasonable testing accommodations to any exam candidate with an identified impairment, disability, condition, disorder, or other special need, in compliance with relevant legislation, including the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and the British Columbia Human Rights Code.

If you require accommodation for a documented disability, please submit your request for accommodation along with a recent medical note via the Licensing Portal by the application deadline, Friday, December 18, 2026.

Candidates may bring pens into the practical examination. No personal items are permitted in the theory examination.

If you require a medically necessary item, such as an inhaler, you must submit an accommodation request.

All accommodation requests will be subject for review and approval by the College.

CCHPBC Licence Examination scheduling

CCHPBC's Licence examination is generally held twice a year: once in late winter/Fall and once in late summer/fall.

Please note that while your preferred examination schedule has been booked, the College reserves the right to amend the date and/or time where administratively necessary.

CCHPBC Licensing Portal

The College has launched a new licensing portal.

This new portal has replaced the existing applicant portals and has become the single platform for interacting with the College.

Through the new system, applicants will be able to submit applications, upload supporting documents, update contact information, and track requests and communications with CCHPBC.

The new portal is designed to streamline application processes and improve the overall experience for applicants interacting with the College.

Applicants may now login to the applicant portal to start their licence application.
